

Shihad, Missionary

If you come knocking on my door
I'll make sure that I'm not there
It's no fun being all alone but don't you phone
I'm running...

'Cause I know and I'll always remember what you said

Got woken up by a missionary
Who's come to deliver a message of peace
I told her peace was what I had
Until I was woken by a missionary

But if you go
I promise I will remember what you said
