

Shinedown, Dead Don't Die

Black line for the 9th time

I'm on a first name basis with the afterlife
And there's a feeling when you're the demon
I dug myself out of the dead for a reason
And I'm never running, so try it again
Starting it over right back at the end
When's the last time you were afraid?
I haven't been afraid a day in my life
The dead don't die, the heart still beats
Head held high, I haunt these streets
Life's killed me a hundred thousand times
You can try, you can try, but the dead don't die
Knock me down six feet deep
One more round, no reprieve
Life's killed me a hundred thousand times
You can try, you can try, but the dead don't die
In the mirror, no reflection
Another day, just another resurrection
Where's the glory? Just another story
I won't be the ending that was written for me
And I'm never running, so try it again
Starting it over, right where I began
It's pretty boring is it, this existence?
I will not take fear off the table
The dead don't die, the heart still beats
Head held high, I haunt these streets
Life's killed me a hundred thousand times
You can try, you can try, but the dead don't die
Knock me down six feet deep
One more round, no reprieve
Life's killed me a hundred thousand times
You can try, you can try, but the dead don't die
I think everyone is a little scared of what's next
Live or die, live or die?
The dead don't die, the heart still beats
Head held high, I haunt these streets
Life's killed me a hundred thousand times
You can try, you can try, but the dead don't die
Knock me down six feet deep
One more round, no reprieve
Life's killed me a hundred thousand times
You can try, you can try, but the dead don't die, die!
Life's killed me a hundred thousand times
You can try, you can try, but the dead don't die
