Shinedown, Devour

Take it and take it and take it and take it and take it all Take it and take it and take it until you take us all Smash it and crash it and thrash it and trash it; they're only toys Try as you like it, don't hide it, don't fight it, just let it out Steal it and shoot it and kill it or take another route Take it and take it and take it; you know they're only toys

Devour, devour
Suffocate your own empire
Devour, devour
It's your final hour
Devour, devour
Stolen like a foreign soul
Devour, devour
What a way to go

You want it, you want it, you want it, well here it is Everything, everything, everything isn't so primitive Take it and take it and take it and take it and take it all Nobody, nobody wants to feel like this Nobody, nobody wants to live like this Nobody, nobody wants a war like this

Devour, devour
Suffocate your own empire
Devour, devour
It's your final hour
Devour, devour
Stolen like a foreign soul
Devour, devour
What a way to go

What a way to go

Diving down
Round and round
Diving down
Round and round

Devour, devour
Suffocate your own empire
Devour, devour
It's your final hour
Devour, devour
Stolen like a foreign soul
Devour, devour
What a way to go

Devour, devour
Suffocate your own empire
Devour, devour
It's your final hour
Devour, devour
Stolen like a foreign soul
Devour, devour
What a way to go
What a way to go
