

Shinedown, Planet Zero

Down here on Planet Zero
They swing that gavel hard
No words, no peace, no advocate
No signs of life so far

Better pray for the soul of the citizen
Better pray that you're not erased
On your knees, for the life, you're living
On your knees or you'll be replaced

Replaced

Out here on Planet Zero
We live like no tomorrow
I think we've reached the ceiling
They're canceling your feelings
On to better days
Or so they say
But I don't think so
They're murdering our heroes
Out here on Planet Zero

Look at me
I'm not looking for a favor
I'm just looking for an axe to grind
All hail power to the people
Except you
You check the box we don't like

Don't like
So bite your tongue 'cause it might save your life

Out here on Planet Zero
We live like no tomorrow
I think we've reached the ceiling
They're canceling your feelings
On to better days
Or so they say
But I don't think so
They're murdering our heroes
Out here on Planet Zero

10, 9, 8, 7, 6, 5, 4, 3, 2, 1

Shut the door
Say a prayer
Kill the lights
Bite your tongue 'cause it might save your life
Shut the door
Say a prayer
Hold your breath

Down here on Planet Zero
There might be no tomorrow
I think we've reached the ceiling
On to better days
Or so they say
But I don't think so

Shut the door

Say a prayer
Shut the door
Say a prayer
