We all got a little bit of trouble sometime
Nobody's perfect but it's alright. Gotta think twice and change the ways
We can make the world to a better place
Show no tears, no more fears, ready for each other and just be right here.
Don't worry always friends in the end. You're not alone so we can do it again
I know it hurts so bad, see the pain inside you' smile in your face, but tears behind you.
