

Shinichi Osawa, Dreamhunt

I'm looking for answers I'm on the hunt
You know where to find me, I know what I want
I'll follow the dragon into the cave
Just like a white tiger, I hunt for my prey

(white hot white hot white on white)

You're skin is like water
You're blood is like gold
We're never too young, we're never too old
I'm reading the pages of a book
The final chapter, the final chapter

A ride in a dream
Through the paper trees
Up on a hill and by the stream
You're skin is like water
You're blood is like gold
We're never too young we're never too old...

I'm looking for the truth
I'm on the hunt
A through and that's enough to set it off
I'm reading from a book that's silver and gold
I won't give up, it's not enough, I'm good again

I'm looking for a love
I'm on the hunt
I'M looking for a love that's silver and gold
I'm looking for the truth that no one told
I wasn't too young
I'm looking for a love
I'm looking for...

You couldn't stop it if you tried
I wouldn't let it pass me by
The only way to know we'll last is if we let the sadness pass
