

Shiny Toy Guns, Turned To Real Life

Eyes are magic, see right through me
Makes me feel like a girl in a fantasy
Turned to real life, stars in the morning
Makes me feel like a girl in a fantasy
Turned to real life

Now I'm glowing like a sunset
In the window of my dreams
That turned to real life
I'll never forget when
For the first time
A girl in a fantasy
Turned to real life

Makes me feel like a girl in a fantasy
Turned to real life
I'm a believer for the first time
I can be beautiful
A girl in a fantasy
Turned to real life

Your fingers running over my body
Makes me feel like a silver angel
Under the moonlight, right beside me
Makes me feel like a girl in a fantasy
Turned to real life

Makes me feel like a girl in a fantasy
Turned to real life
I'm a believer for the first time
I can be beautiful
A girl in a fantasy turned to real life

Makes me feel like a girl in a fantasy
Turned to real life
I'm a believer for the first time
I can be beautiful
A girl in a fantasy turned to real life

Makes me feel like a girl in a fantasy
Turned to real life
I'm a believer for the first time
I can be beautiful
A girl in a fantasy turned to real life
