Shivaree, Fear Is A Man's Best Friend

Standing waiting for a man to show Wide eyed one eye fixed on the door This waiting's killing me It's wearing me down

Day in day out My feet are burning holes in the ground

Darkness warmer than a bedroom floor Want someone to hold me close forever more I'm a sleeping dog But you can't tell

When I'm on the prowl Run like hell

You know it makes sense Don't think about it Life and death are just things you do when you're bored

Say fear's a man's best friend Say fear's a man's best friend Say fear's a man's best friend When you add it up it brings you down You add it up it brings you down

Home is living like a man on the run Trails leading nowhere, where to my son? We're already dead Not yet in the ground

Take my helping hand I'll show you around

You know it makes sense Don't think about it Life and death are just things you do when you're bored

Say fear's a man's best friend Say fear's a man's best friend Say fear's a man's best friend When you add it up it brings you down You add it up it brings you down
