

Shontelle, Life Is Not An Easy Road

Life is not an easy road
A true you jus a struggle wid your heavy load
I know
It seems it seems you lose the battle more and more
Life is not an easy road
You have to play your part and take control
Dont you ever ease up
Never give up
Dont let go
Hopeless youths dem out inna de street
And dem no have no job so just to win they have to cheat
Tell me why so many see it and dont speak
And why theyll never find a peaceful home they cyaan retreat
And dem cyaan find no food to eat
And where you lay your head dem have a bed of concrete
And your momma she ah cry when she ah see it
Its not a revolution just a cycle that repeats cause
Life is not an easy road
A true you jus a struggle wid your heavy load
I know
It seems it seems you lose the battle more and more
Life is not an easy road
You have to play your part and take control
Dont you ever ease up
Never give up
Dont let go
See the sunshine will come one day
And prejudice and inequality will fade away
Man will not judge man but he will say
Its time to love my neighbour as my brother and not hate
And the world will unite as one
And governments eliminate all chemicals and bombs
We will no longer have to run
The uprising has only just begun, so hear me song
Life is not an easy road
A true you jus a struggle wid your heavy load
I know
It seems it seems you lose the battle more and more
Life is not an easy road
You have to play your part and take control
Dont you ever ease up
Never give up
You see dem little youth a cry dem have cold cold feet
Dem prostitute dem life dem ah so dem world get defeat
Dem politicians try fi tek your life you see
But just trust you will survive and keep your dignity
Never mind how dem a treat you never mind wat dem a say
Keep you eyes pon tomorrow but you live for today
You stop you drop you roll to save your soul
You never let dem take it away
Sing
Life is not an easy road
A true you jus a struggle wid your heavy load
I know
It seems it seems you lose the battle more and more
Life is not an easy road
You have to play your part and take control
Dont you ever ease up
Never give up
Dont let go
