

Shooter Jennings, Lonesome Blues

Another lifetime lived in a long night
Im watching the sunrise before I lay down to sleep
Livin at parties , watching my twenties hittin my thirties and lettin it go

Chorus:

But thats all Ive been livin for
When theres nothing left to lose anymore
If theres a door, Ill go through and walk right into my lonesome blues

Running my friends off
I cheat and I get caught
They tell me that Im lost but I dont care anymore
Im having a free mind
Living a free life
Knowing that my flight is gonna crash and burn

Repeat Chorus

Writing my stories on my worst mornings
Pulling my heart strings to help me find myself
Living with my past
Smokin up my grass
And having a good laugh just to lose myself
