

Shout Out Louds, Never Ever

Tonight I'm dreaming, and i wish to stay there forever my lungs are empty and right now I want to scream, I want to scream....
And tonight I'm telling you everything I'm never ever gonna regret this
never ever....

My head is spinning and it's been like this forever and my conscience is breaking up and that conflict is coming back, it's coming back.....

And tonight I'm telling you
never ever....

And tonight I'm telling you
never ever....

Tonight I'll tell you this I'll never gonna forget this never ever....
