

Shout Out Louds, The Comeback

i'm kind of tired cause you wouldn't let me sleep last night i'm a reasonable man but i can't believe what's on your mind
and the past three weeks were the saddest weeks and the words you said oh, made me weak i'm out of my mind
i'm about to crack, so let's call this the comeback i been pushed around and i'm not gonna get pushed this time cause the time is mine
but i can't believe what's on your mind
let's call this the comeback again
