

Show Me The Skyline, Get On Your Feet

Oh, to tell the truth,
I'm a bit of a wreck
Thinkin' about those hands
Around the back of my neck
And, to say what I feel,
I miss what we were
So unbreakable
Back when we were invincible.
Get up on your feet
I'll take it to the floor
Oh, here we go
You're all I want and more.
Grab yourself a seat
Imagine what's in store
Oh, here we go
You're all I want and more.
Still got your picture by my bed
I found the perfect frame and place
To fall asleep, late at night
And wake up to your face
But over time it'll have to go
And even later be replaced.
I guess part of growing up is learning
Nothing that's golden ever stays
Get up on your feet
I'll take it to the floor
Oh, here we go
You're all I want and more.
Grab yourself a seat
And imagine what's in store
Oh, here we go
You're all I want and more...
And every time I hear you it's still
Such a calming sound
I see you and I feel as if
I've lifted off the ground
I wake up every morning
Wishing all my dreams were real
Just promise, girl you'll speak your mind
And follow what you feel.
Get on your feet
I'll take it to the floor
Oh, here we go
You're all I want and more.
Grab yourself a seat
And imagine what's in store
Oh, here we go
You're all I want and more.
