

Showoff, Coalition

I see the world this way
Never thought that it could be
If you're so smart then you would open up your eyes, but you're so stupid that you can't realize it Could it be insanity I question the humanity
I'm thinking of life, thinking of life
I study the possibilities I'm thinking of tranquility I'm thinking of love, thinking of love and I don't wanna beat it up, no color creed I'm thinking of obliterating racism Yeah, I just wanna make it known that he who casts the first stone.
You'll love yourself, and ove everyone else.
