

Showoff, Losing It

Something burning deep inside of me
Tells me it's not worth going on
But I search for answers deeper still Deeper still than anything you have said
Maybe I don't know what's going on right now
Your answers confuse me
Your words burn right through me
I'm drifting away
Can't to stand feel this way
Maybe it's all of those little things
Tell me your using seems you been using me
Late at night when I try to go to sleep
I imagine you lying next to me
My heart still bleeds from all the wounds you've made and
I can't stand all of those games you play with my head
Maybe I don't know what's goin on right now
Your answers confuse me
Your words burn right through me
I'm drifting away
Can't to stand feel this way
Maybe it's all of those little things
Tell me your using seems you been using me
So sorry say your eyes
But I see through your lies
You say it hurts you so
But this is what I know, what I know
That it seems that you've been using me..yeah!
