

Showoff, Same Old Games

Standing here
I notice things
That I have not before
Girl, you're saying things
That I wanna hear
No time we had
Seems to be what's on your mind
And I know you'll be leaving me, dear

It's just the same old games
That you keep playin
It's just the same old names
That you keep sayin

I'll be right here
If you need someone to talk to
I'll stay right here
If you need somewhere to walk to
Same old games
But I still wait for you, again
