Sia, Reaper

Broke down, thought that I would drown Hope that I've been found, 'fore I hit the ground Sun rays out the corner of my eye, hey Saw you weeping, saw you creeping Saw you sneaking in the shadow's dawn I feel so strong Saw you out the corner of my eye

Don't come for me today I'm feeling good I'mma savor it Don't come for me today I'm feeling good I remember when

You came to take me away So close I was to heaven's gates But no baby, no baby, not today You tried to track me down You followed me like the darkest cloud But no baby, no baby, not today Reaper, reaper No baby, no baby, not today Reaper, reaper No baby, no baby, not today

So come back when I'm good to go I got drinks to drink, and men to hold I got good things to do with my life, yeah I wanna dance in the open breeze Feel the wind in my hair, hear the ocean sing I got good things to feel in my life, yeah

Don't come for me today I'm feeling good I'mma savor it Don't come for me today I'm feeling good I remember when

You came to take me away So close I was to heaven's gates But no baby, no baby, not today You tried to track me down You followed me like the darkest cloud But no baby, no baby, not today Reaper, reaper No baby, no baby, not today Reaper, reaper No baby, no baby, not today
