

Sicko, My Tribute To The Misfits (Aka: Your Sister

your sister...

She got bit by another werewolf she was on the news at five she got shot by a silver bullet she got buried alive

she walked down a darkened alley she looked up and saw the moon she looked down and her hands were hairy she knew she'd be killing soon

your sister...

she was your baby sister she was so beautiful she went out with her werewolf boyfriend now she's got her teeth in you she got shot by her own father she got shot on devil's night he blew her brains out then she scooped them up she said

let me give you a piece of my mind

your sister...
