

Sicko, Snowcone

While the snow comes down at Rachel's house watching big time wrestling videos I said, "are these guys really doing this?" she asked me was I serious

And would you like to have a beer or a glass of hot tea we'll talk about life while we're watching T.V.
And it gets cold...

While the snow comes down at Rachel's house and the cat keeps trying to get out because the mice are playing out in the yard and keeping kitty cat cool is getting hard While the snow comes down at Rachel's house and the view outside it leaves no doubt that driving home is going to be rough with all that snow and ice and stuff

And so we say, "good night, good night, I can drive, I'll be alright" I stepped into a snowy night turn around, my arms held wide, I drove home
