

Sign, Thank God For Silence

Thank God For Silence lyrics

Oh!
Do you really want to hide?
Do you really wanna go?
Deep inside the faces cowl,
Scared of the unknown
'fraid to speak what's that you mean
Never understand
Silence seems the only way of stopping it

I found my refuge
A place where I am home..

Thank God for silence
Sleeps behind me always
Another day comes, another fight goes on
I am always safe

Little love now listen, there's something you should know
Every breaths of prayer, request for life
When that sound appears, you should never fear
Just close your eyes, you will know it's everything

I found my refuge
A place where I am home..

Thank God for silence
Sleeps behind me always
Another day comes, another fight goes on
I am always safe, yeah!

Thank God for silence
Sleeps behind me always
Another day comes, another fight goes on
I am always safe

Thank God for silence
Sleeps behind me always
But I am always safe.. oh..
