

Signs Of Betrayal, Leave This Behind

Can't find serenity
With all of these emotions, they're haunting me
The faces tiring
It's the same shit every day with no ending
My patience growing weak
Don't want the world to see this happen to me
Leave this behind
Before saying goodbye
The anger changing me
Another day goes by and I can't break free
Seems like eternity
Before all this is over and I can breath
Leave this behind
Before saying goodbye
And I can't wait to break free from this
Cold dark place that we call our own world
Leave this behind
Before saying goodbye
