

Sigrid, High Five

nobody dares to sepak against your word so they just sit quiet do what you want who cares if you'll get hurt?

no, I don't know why you wonder why wonder why /2x
you're surrounding by the type od people that never say that you don't wanna hear so the just stay quiet

Uhh, everybody loves a show lights on, they all go home you, holding anybody close the high five is all you got uhh, they keep saying you're the best you ask and they sat yeah! uuuh, when you add up all that's left

you say it's hard, feel sorry for yourself and I don't know why you you take it out on everybody else

wonder why /2x
you're surrounding by the type od people

you ask and they sat yeah!

why you wonder why wonder why no one's by your side by your side
when the room goes quiet

you ask and they sat yeah!
