

Sigrid, Schedules

though I saw you in the crowd tonight but I know you're somewhere else
you're just on my mind
I don't need you
but it feels so good to just say it as it is and be understood

I don't care about perfect timing
this is it

I think we're hit
I know that my schedules is fucked up baby you know you're the same and that's why
I think we're hit
I know I begging for a trouble
but I'mma misbehave
and that's why
I think we're hit

I guess now's the time to have fun we can keep this going even if we're on the run we got something special right now
feel free to call me up I'm always down

I don't care
about perfect timing
this is it

I think we're hit
I know that my schedules is fucked up
baby you know you're the same
and that's why
I think we're hit
I know I begging for a trouble
but I'mma misbehave
and that's why
I think we're hit
