

Sigrid, Sight Of You

It's a lonely feelin', wavin' you goodbye
I don't know what I'm leavin', until the moment is gone

Checkin' in, never checkin' out
I get tired, kinda grumpy, but I'm never in doubt
That you've got my back
When I see you again

Sometimes it's like nothin' is going my way
Even though I know I'm getting up on that stage
But now that I'm here, I got reason to believe
Just the sight of you is getting the best out of me
Just the sight of you is getting the best out of me

The airline lost my luggage, still got all this weight
And all the things I'm done with are showin' up again

Breakin' in but I won't break down
I get tired, kinda grumpy, but I'm never in doubt
That you've got my back
When I see you again

Sometimes it's like nothin' is going my way
Even though I know I'm gettin' up on that stage
But now that I'm here, I got reason to believe
Just the sight of you is getting the best out of me
Just the sight of you is getting the best out of me
Just the sight of you is getting the best out of me

And I'll be damned if I ever forget
Just how lucky I am to be Close to you when I need it the most
Can you hold me if I wanna leave?

Breakin' in but I won't break down
I get tired, kinda grumpy, but I'm never in doubt
That you've got my back
When I see you again

Sometimes it's like nothin' is going my way
Even though I know I'm getting up on that stage
But now that I'm here, I got reason to believe
Just the sight of you is getting the best out of me

Sometimes it's like nothing is going my way
Even though I know I'm getting up on that stage
But now that I'm here, I got reason to believe
Just the sight of you is getting the best out of me
Just the sight of you is getting the best out of me
Just the sight of you is getting the best out of me
