

SikTh, Hold my finger!

Hold my finger!
I do want to with you
Just understand it's not right now
Dont wanna fuck right now
I'm chillin' with ya
Can we not just lie here and make love spiritually?
All Alone, with you
Your eyes I'm looking through
When I wake up I promise I'll be
With you girl?
Then I'll give you all of my attention
Damn right, I'll have my morning erection
I'll give you some lovin'
Jump!
Sometimes I'd like to do whatever you're into Building this perfect moment
But as we lie here my mind slips away.
I'm so ashamed of myself to do this to you
It's all I'm good for now, chick, please forgive me
And it ain't no joke, my stoner loving finger hold,
Goodbye to the negative vibes.
Can we not chill, go to sleep with my arms around you?
But then you scream and your right
I should be there for you.
So now I try, check my pulse to make sure I'm alive
Sorry chick I cant get in
That Mood now!
Listen, chick, I can hardly function
My mind says chill don't need that affection
Sorry, but I don't want to Arrrrrrrrrr...
As I walk, I think too hard,
Cannot grip
Just what went wrong
So if I let this out, could I float away again?
Just want to fly so far away again.
As I fly
Try to get out of these negative vibes
I'm so bored
As I float by
What is my destiny, am I somewhere that I shouldn't be?
I feel alone
But when I'm with you it's, alright
But when I'm without you, I'm so...
I feel that
Feel close to you
You couldn't understand why
But you want puppy loving and five orgasms 'til the night
Is through
But it wont happen
Cos I can't explain this with you.
OK, it's up, now we fuck, I'll go put on a Johnny
Open the pack, then it's back flopping before me.
Mind starts to hurt, you scream
And talk to me like
I wish you could know exactly
What I mean!
I'm so wasted, I'd not last anyway
You'd think I suck and never see me again
Just chill out chick, chill out, see what I see.
