

Silage, Cool Shoes

my elephant will never let me down when pigs and snakes invite me to the ground i closed my eyes to change my shoes and that's when i fell off of you so please send your big trunk down i don't know why i closed my eyes but i did and i am stupid for leaving him, the elephant and now i'm trying to bum a ride i like shoes but i didn't choose the right time to change my mind i should have waited another time but thanks for another ride
