

Silence, I Love You

It's no secret
No hidden fact
It's common knowledge
It's something They know, too
I love you

I love your black skin
Your slanting eyes
All the things that They despise
I love you

Alienated
Estranged by envy
They won't admit it
the way I do
I love you

The latest news - tables have turned Too good to be true,
as far as I'm concerned
