

Silence, In Your Name

There is this sudden,
subtle pain
that burns my lips
just like a flame
whenever I decide
to pronounce your name

It makes me wild
and hard to tame
It makes me forget
about shame
but I am not the one to blame

The reason for all this is hidden in your name

The reason's hidden
in your name

The subtle pain
is back again
to collect the sweetest claim
whenever I decide
to pronounce your name
