

Silence, Son Of Sin

Son of sin
Look at the mess I'm in Take a peak at all the shit I've seen Thanks to you and your good advice Next time you sell You'd better name the price

Son of sin are you aware that thanks to your unwanted help I can now announce the fact that I'm a son of sin myself
Son of sin are you aware
I am now a son of sin myself

You were my guide
The blind leading the blind
Son of sin
The worst friend a man can find Your angry words became my way to unwind I loved to use them even though they were signed by the devil himself

I was lost
I couldn't find my way but then you came and led me hopelessly astray Much obliged
