

Silence, Surrender

It's here
My sweet baby
So soon, yet overdue
It's here
Here to claim you
The time we bought is through

Surrender, my love
Surrender, it's alright
Give in to the night

I must let you go now
Brave little girl
One more child devoured
by this world

It's here
Like a hound
that's onto a wounded prey
What was distant future
has just become today

Surrender, my love
Surrender, it's alright
Give in to the night

I must let you go now
Brave little girl
Nothing's worse for children
than this world
