

Silent decay, Open your eyes

"open your eyes, please don't hide!" a voice speaks side by side this history book in my hands shows me a world where all visions end mamas crying cause their babies are dead died by bombs dropped by "thunderhead" sick injustice in the background and we have party and dance around I'm searching for some lyrics I can throw down on this song I'm listening to my speakers I have lost and they have won! my sadness turns to madness cause my brain's completely closed this state of mind I can never find when I look down on this world yes, what I've seen I describe as bad and if I turn away I can go to bed! we don't care cause we celebrate pop let's be politicians on the top while we fishing the sea dead murdering lives and looking sad while we're praying for the new I'm still preaching this to you
