

Silent decay, What a shame do you know that feeling? you think you're going mad cause her ass gets too big and she never looks like a pussycat I know what i'm saying cause i'm feeling this way have you heard about this feeling of standing between, of standing twice one girl on the left, one girl on the right you can choose or you can drop this decision to the side drop it to the side! drop it to the side! you can drop this decision to the side!

yes, I feel the same - oh what a shame! oh what a shame that Im feeling the same! ok - let's go! my inclination has won and I jump in bed with them one by one my moral conflict says: "hello" and I confess it to my fellows I must confess, I must confess it before I explode!
yes, I feel the same - oh what a shame! oh what a shame that Im feeling the same!
sometimes it's hard - sometimes it's easy sometimes you cannot believe in god
sometimes it's hard - sometimes it's easy sometimes you're lost thought by thought now we meet to talk about it, we have some drinks, more than allowed in the end of this story I'm standing proud: we're three in the bed and playing around!
oh what a shame! oh what a shame! oh what a shame!
yes, I feel the same - oh what a shame! oh what a shame that Im feeling the same!
