

Silent Majority, No I'm Not

let's see
let me think back
'cause it's been about five years now and I'm thinking that I should be a little bit more screwed up than I am barely a bitter bone inside of me I feel fine at least I think I am and it's hard to admit that this family is dysfunctional why don't I just give in and make believe I'm struggling within it all
let's see
and I'm not freaking out I don't need to speak to someone mom you know I'll be okay trust me believe me hear me this is my therapy
this is my outlet this mic's her tape recorder this stage her leather couch
let's see
