

Silent Surrender, Vengeance

You force me down in your cold chair of misery.
You strap me in with the noose of your disgust.
You stand waiting for me to become decay.
Beat me down to the bone, waiting for the day.
The day that you pushed me away.
Cut me with your knife,
Blind me with your lies,
Crowning me with your hate,
I know you're aching to end my life.
Breathe in, breathe out.
Losing breath, losing focus you are just a faded blur.
Turning blue, breathing anything but air.
What have you done to me?
Please just let me see.
Losing sight, losing mind, gone too far.
The day that you pushed me away.
Cut me with your knife,
Blind me with your lies,
Crowning me with your hate,
I know you're aching to end my life.
It has ended.
I have nothing to say to you.
I am gone and you are left here with regret.
Goodbye, you got your wish.
Take this life I have betrayed
And now it is my turn to pay:
Take this vengeance take this vengeance.
