

Silje Nergaard, On And On

June, what are you crying for?
Soon you'll have to end this war
The days are turning darker now
But hang on to that dream somehow

June, where are you going to?
True, the game got rough on you
Things have turned so sad inside
But hang on to that dream you hide

On and on, the dark will find you
Rain will fall, and clouds surround you
But carry on, my love's behind you
I know I'll see you smiling

June, you'd better stand up, girl
Soon you'll have to face the world
I know you'll find a place somewhere
You'll put things back together there

On and on, the dark will find you
Rain will fall, and clouds surround you
But carry on, my love's behind you
I know I'll see you smiling

The days are turning darker now
But you will find your peace somehow

On and on, the dark will find you
Rain will fall, and clouds surround you
But carry on, my love's behind you
I know I'll see you smiling

On and on, the dark is gonna find you
And the rain is gonna fall, and clouds surround you
But carry on, my love's behind you
I know I'll see you smiling
