

Silk, Afterplay

(Intro)

Mmm, Silk's in the house
When you get good love
You get foreplay
When you get great love
You get afterplay
Welcome to afterplay

1 - This is just an extra music afterplay
To bless that body
Just to make you feel good
Like you 'spose to

Repeat 1

Hey ladies, say ladies, let us in
Or we'll huff and we'll puff and commit a sin
When we're done and the love session ends
We'll think of something else
That's all I'm sayin'
So don't be flexin', don't be flakes

(Females)

So ya'll gon' be treating us like ladies?

That's no question, that's no question
And in your eyes the passion lies beneath
But it's ok, I got you girl
Ladies

Repeat 1

It's the way you brought the chorus
It's the way you hold my verse
It's the way you shout it, damn, that's tight
As your body quench my thirst

Musically, it was ecstasy
It felt so good
The lyrics melted in your mouth
But your body understood

We sang lullabies and made you cry
We tried to touch you deep inside
It's afterplay, an afterlude
To get you back into the mood

So let's do this thing, one more care
Rewind the track 'cause Silk is here
Don't rush, take it slow
Here you come, here we go

Repeat 1

Repeat 1

It's suppose to taste good and feel good
And smell good and sound good
Is it good, yeah

Just a little something extra for ya body
Make you feel good, make you feel good

It's suppose to taste good and feel good
And smell good and sound good

This is just an extra music afterplay
To bless that body
It's suppose to taste good and feel good
And smell good and sound good

This is just an extra music afterplay
To bless that body
It's suppose to taste good and feel good
And smell good and sound good
