

Silke Bischoff, Close Your Eyes

You can close your eyes
I hold you like a child, your head on my shoulder
The taste of your tears
You think that I', so strong
But it's hard to find the right words
I feel like a schoolboy
When I sing this song
When I sing this song
Wenn I sing this song for you

You don't ned to talk I think I understand
Ther's so much confusion and no way out
Maybe I'm too old and maybe you're too young
Maybe it's ridiculous
When I sing this song
When I sing this song
Wh en I sing this song for you

Ohoh I've never been thinking
That I would ever fall in love again
Ohoh I've never been thinking
That I would ever fall in love with you
With You
You can close your eyes
You can close your eyes
Watch my bleeding
