

Silke Bischoff, This Is My Life

This is my life buried in my dreams
I close my eyes, no more friends and no more lies
The flowers of evil, glooming in the night
I leave my body, I leave the pain inside

She doesn't answer, is there anybody out?
The sky is burning, is there anybody out?
The devil's laughing, is there anybody out?
I am falling, is there anybody?

This is my life the serpent's poison in my vein
I close my eyes, the secrets are unveiled
The flowers of evil, bleeding in my brain
I can't forget you, but our love's in vain

She doesn't answer, is there anybody out?
The sky is burning, is there anybody out?
The devil's laughing, is there anybody out?
I am falling, is there anybody?

She doesn't answer, is there anybody out?
The sky is burning, is there anybody out?
The devil's laughing, is there anybody out?
I am falling, is there anybody?

Is there anybody? Is there anybody?
Is there anybody? Is there anybody?
Is there anybody? Is there anybody?
Is there anybody? Is there anybody?
