Silkstone, Rain Has Come

Ooh lalala yeah

I won't run, I won't hide this time I'll try to make it right It won't feel like no big deal cause you don't win if you don't fight The rain has come, the rain has come, but I'm all right.

Ooh lalala yeah

I won't cry, I will try to face this last thing on my mind It is hard but I'll play it smart, I will go on 'till the day I die The rain has come, the rain has come, but I'm all right

I'm here on a better day, it's getting worse but I'm OK You won't even notice me, cause I'm not here to stay I'm leaving in not too long before something bad might come..
