

Silkstone, Ready

So here I stand,
Here I'm right on the top of a perfect world
Here I stand, feeling fine, but it's over before you know

So here I am,
Here I'm finding the piece of my melody
Hear me sing, sing out loud
It's all right now !

Refrein:
I'll right it all, wait and see
If I get it together right
With a tear, or a smile
I will get it together right

So clearly now,
I'm feeling perfect, the writings are on the walls
Clearly how, I sing out loud
It's all right now!

Refrein

Someone tried to tell me that I didn't make it right this time
This time I'll try to be just fine
What if I'm right or wrong
Anything that I would do is reach that thing,
For I'll be true oh oh!!

So here I stand, feeling fine.... Oho oho oho oho
