

Silly Fools, 21 Days

Twenty-one days in May.
I never wanted to see this day.
The day you were taken away.
My saddest day, your last day.
Twenty-one days in May.
Twenty-one days in May.

Close your eyes, my love.
Close your eyes, my Angel.

Your words still ringing clear.
Your voice still calling through the years.
I only wish that you were here.
You were there by my side.
From the time I was a child.
A guiding hand and loving eyes.

Your soft shoulder when I cried.
Your soft shoulder when I cried.

Just helped me through.
Twenty-one day in May.
I never wanted to see this day.
The day you were taken away.
My saddest day, your last day.
Twenty-one days in May.

To my lover.
The reason for what I see.
But it's been years and I still grieve.

Close your eyes, my love.
Close your eyes, my Angel.

I miss you.
Twenty-one day in May.
I never wanted to see this day.
The day you were taken away.
My saddest day, your last day.
Twenty-one days.

Twenty-one day in May.
I never wanted to see this day.
The day you were taken away.
My saddest day, your last day.
Twenty-one days.
