

Silly Fools, One Generation

One world...one sky.
One home called earth.
A child alone will cry.
One mother gives birth.

I'm talking about one nation...one generation.
Living in pain and despair...no fair, no fair, no fair.

I'm talking about one nation...one generation.
Without hunger or cold night...no right, no right, no right.

Can we learn to share?
Can we learn to care?
Come on, let's make it right.
We can start tonight.

I'm talking about one nation...one generation.
Living in pain and despair...no fair, no fair, no fair.

I'm talking about one nation...one generation.
Without hunger or cold night...no right, no right, no right.

How wide is one sea?
Is this great imagination?
To close our eyes,
to the pain of one nation.

A baby's cry needs no translation.
Mother Nature cry with tears.
For this generation.

Listen to the world cry...no cry, no cry, no cry.
Listen to the world cry...no cry, no cry, no cry.

A baby's cry needs no translation.
Mother Nature cry with tears.
For this generation.

Listen to the world cry...no cry, no cry, no cry.
Listen to the world cry...no cry, no cry, no cry.

For one generation.
