Silverchair, The Closing

Welcome to the closing Not for love what for? It's easy to be taken But to say

Come again Leave again Waste of time Come again

I'm all alone while you're having fun You have faith while I feel none Sleep till late to waste half the day But I'm happy to live this way

And you know that you can't see my pain But you know that I can see your pain

Me and shame are the same Me and shame take the blame

Me and pain are the same Me and shame take the blame

Welcome to the closing
