

Silverstein, Sand Will Turn To Glass

I can't believe, that I can be Full of so much hate
Another hero dies, the devil wins
The people hide their shame

Lies were spoken
Bonds were broken
Can he ever change?
Turn your back and run away as fast as you can
Don't mark your name
Half a dozen guns all pointed straight at the hunted one.
a misfired shell you've shot
the only thing you love.

Lies were spoken
Bonds were broken
Can he ever change?
Turn your back and run away as fast as you can
Don't mark your name

Yeah!

Sunshine turns to darkness everyday
The fragile's born from honesty.
Losing faith

I can't believe how suddenly
guilty hearts can mend.
I know myself
I've killed and
I'll do it again

Lies were spoken
Bonds were broken
Can he ever change?
Turn your back and run away as fast as you can
Don't mark your name
Yeah!
