

Silverstein, Ultraviolet

Do you believe in things unseen?
'Cause something strange has a hold on me
Is it chemical?
Supernatural?
As it all unfolds
I'm learning I have no control
Can't see it with my own eyes
Can't feel the lows or the highs
Doesn't stop when I try to fight it
I get lost in the ultraviolet
Can I rewire my head
When all the connections are dead
Doesn't stop when I try to fight it
I get lost in the ultraviolet
Losing my grip and I can't explain
I feel the fire but see no flames
Is it chemical?
Supernatural?
Why won't it let me go?
I'm learning I have no control
If the current's the cure
Light me up
Fifty thousand volts
Reborn in electricity
Sell my soul for dopamine
