

Simon Says, Perfect Example

I've heard about the lies you tell
And it just makes me sick do you really think I care
Makes no difference if you're gone
You're another perfect example
It always makes me feel so good
Hypocrite's never failed to suit you
Oh well

We all see through your weak mold
There's more than just morals
Your preaching just gets so old
I can't respect the fake passion
You're another perfect example
It always makes me feel so good
Hypocrite's never failed to suit you
Oh well

Why
It always makes me feel the same old way
It always makes me feel the same old way
The line is drawn so vivid
You just see black and white
Outstanding circumstances
Have you forgotten how to fight
Run
You're another perfect example
It always makes me feel so good
Hypocrite's never failed to suit you
I never really thought it would
