

Simon Townshend, Ages

I'm gonna get myself together
Gonna get myself on track
Gonna find a way back
Take a bit of time to write
'Cause usually I don't try
But I'm running out of life
I've been wandering for ages
All good things in my life
I've been wandering to places in my soul, it's true
Coming on home to you
I've been wondering for ages, yeah, yeah, yeah
Gonna make it a real endeavor
Reflect on where I've been
I've been dragging my feet
I'll make a bit of time to do all the things that I want to do
Gonna to prove it all to you
I've been wandering for ages, all the good things in my life
I've been wandering to places in my soul it's true
Coming on home to you
I've been wandering for ages, yeah, yeah, yeah
Thank you God, For waking me up
Thank you Lord for getting me up
'Cause the older I get, the harder It get
I wanna make it easier
Thank you Lord for waking me up
I've been wandering for ages
All the good things in my life
I've been wandering to places in my soul, it's true
I've been wandering for ages
All the good things in my life
I've been wandering to places in my soul, it's true
I'm coming on home to you
I've been wandering for ages, yeah, yeah, yeah
I've been wandering for ages, yeah, yeah, yeah
