

Simon Wilcox, Mother's Ruin

You were talking
I was watching
you were looking at your watch again you were rehearsing
to be a better person
but you could use
a few pointers
so go on, go home
yeah go on, go home
but take, take me with you

I missed the last dance Give me another chance
for one more kiss
catch me if you can
I can taste my mother's ruin
as I pour her another gin
catch me if you
can

you were talking
You were looking
at your new friends you were cohearsing yeah
you're the worst thing
that ever happened
to this party

give me anther chance
catch me if you can
catch me if you
if you can
go on go home
now go on go home
