

Simple Kid, The Twenty Something

Runnin, always runnin man after something
Runnin, always runnin man after nothing
Runnin, always runnin man away from something
Runnin, always runnin man away from nothing

Running we've been running so long that there's no stopping
Running, running

We are The Twentysomething
Don't know where we are going
It seems we're always running
Can't stop 24/7
We are The Twentysomething

We are The Twentysomething
Don't know where we are going
It seems we're always running
Watch out the future's coming
When you are twentysomethin

Chasin, always chasin man after something
Chasin, always chasin man after nothing

Chasing, we've been chasing so long that there's no stopping
Chasin, chasin

We are The Twentysomething
Don't know where we are going
It seems we're always running
Can't pay for things we're buying
We are The Twentysomething

We are The Twentysomething
Don't know where we are going
It seems we're always running
Watch out the future's coming
When you are twentysomethin
