

Simplified, High Everyday

It's alright tonight,
It all looks better in this light,
Some will rise and some will fall,
This thing called life can be so hard,

How I love my brighter days,
And all we've learned along the way,
I know we're on the right track,
We'll take this world and won't look back,

How you feeling,
I'm feeling fine,
Now won't you walk my way,
Cause you know I don't mind,
Your love gets me high everyday,

So hard to lose something you love,
And to hold on tight when push comes to shove,
I've got my hopes above my head,
We'll walk the moon instead
